

CASTLE HEIGHTS

When you buy a lot for a home, it is not the ground you buy. It is the surroundings, the location and the beauty of the particular lot you are interested in. The H. C. Seymour Co. offer you all of these in abundance in Castle Heights.

Castle Heights is the ideal place for the family; every lot a high one. The air is pure and clear, the climate ideal, the schools close and the transportation good. Castle avenue, an 80-foot boulevard, connecting Beverly Hills and Hollywood, with Sunset, Hollywood, Santa Monica and Wilshire boulevards, comes through the center of the tract. National boulevard on the front connects with Venice, Arnaz and Washington boulevards.
