

UP AND OVER—A frequent bottleneck on Overland Ave. hill in West Los Angeles finds police car at the bottom detouring traffic while heavily laden truck—halted part way and unable to make hill on its own—is towed up inch by inch. Land purchases have begun to permit widening of avenue to four lanes and lowering of the crest by 30 feet. Work is expected to begin early next year.

Times photo